

ISLEHAM WEEKLY NEWS

Week commencing: Monday 9th December 2019

SPREADING CHRISTMAS CHEER!

Dear Parents and Carers,

Last week our Year 6 House Captains delivered some of the Charity Partnership vouchers to the village. We also had a super group of children join us in Church for the Community Carol concert to mark the end of the Isleham 'Festival of Light' and Mrs Tait read a poem in the service on behalf the school. Thank you to all involved.

This week and next, our Christmas post box will be available to enable children to post Christmas cards to staff or children of the school. Please help your child to address cards clearly with the full name and class of the intended recipient.

Thank you,
Mrs Skillern

READING & PHONICS WORKSHOP

Well done to the Reception class for showing your parents last week how we learn to read at Isleham Primary in our Phonics workshop. Any parents who couldn't make the presentation are reminded to catch up with Miss Diplock to find out how best to support their children's early reading at home.

COMMUNITY NEWS - PARK RUNS

A message from Mrs Deacon:-

I had the lovely experience this weekend of running in the park run, for the first time. This is an organised run which is held at 9am each week in various locations around the country, and all for free! All you have to do is log your details on the official website, <https://www.parkrun.org.uk/> and turn up and run. The newest run is now organised in the grounds of Soham Village College, so there isn't far to travel either. I was amazed at the range of ages, from around 7 years old, to more senior members, all taking part in the 3 mile circuit. The volunteer marshalls were encouraging and supportive and even though I was one of the later finishers, they continued to cheer me on! The reason I am adding this to the school newsletter is that there were some younger runners who took part. I wondered if some parents and children at Isleham might also like to join up and take part each week. Great for fitness, and a fun activity for all the family!
